'79 DEDICATEE

The annual staff wishes to dedicate the 1979 Meteor to Mrs. Jill Zeiger in appreciation for the long hours she has spent with the students.

Mrs. Zeiger started teaching at W.H.S. in 1975. During her five years here she has taught American Government and has also sponsored the Meteorettes. The two colleges which she attended to receive her teacher's certificate are Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, and Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff.

Mrs. Zeiger is also the mother of three children and is married to Mr. Eric L. Zeiger.

We, the staff of the Meteor, would like to acknowledge the inspiration given to the students of Winslow High School by Mrs. Zeiger, whose friendly personality has made her a teacher to be remembered.

ANNUAL ROYALTY

Cindy Whipple was chosen as Yearbook Queen for her hard work during her high school years. Cindy has dedicated her time to the school as a participant in Solo and Ensemble Festival, the operetta "H.M.S. Pinafore," the choir, and as an accompanist for several soloists.

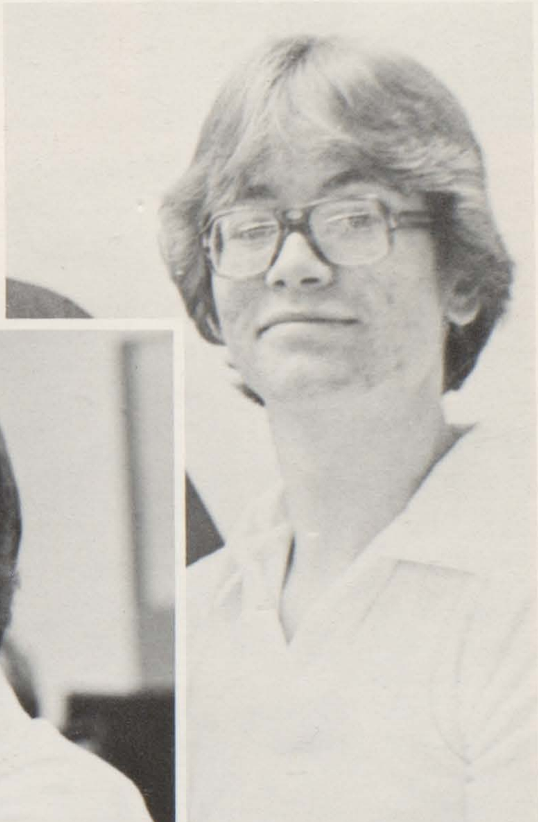

Clinton Wilkins, Yearbook King, has done a great deal of work for the school as a football and basketball manager. Clinton has been a member of Honor Society, track, journalism, F.B.L.A., and W Club. Clinton has served as treasurer of Key Club and president of Quill and Scroll.

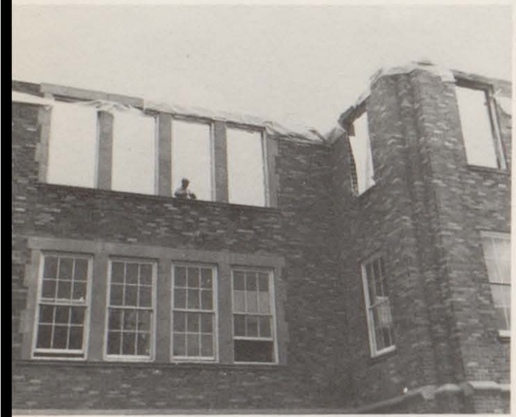

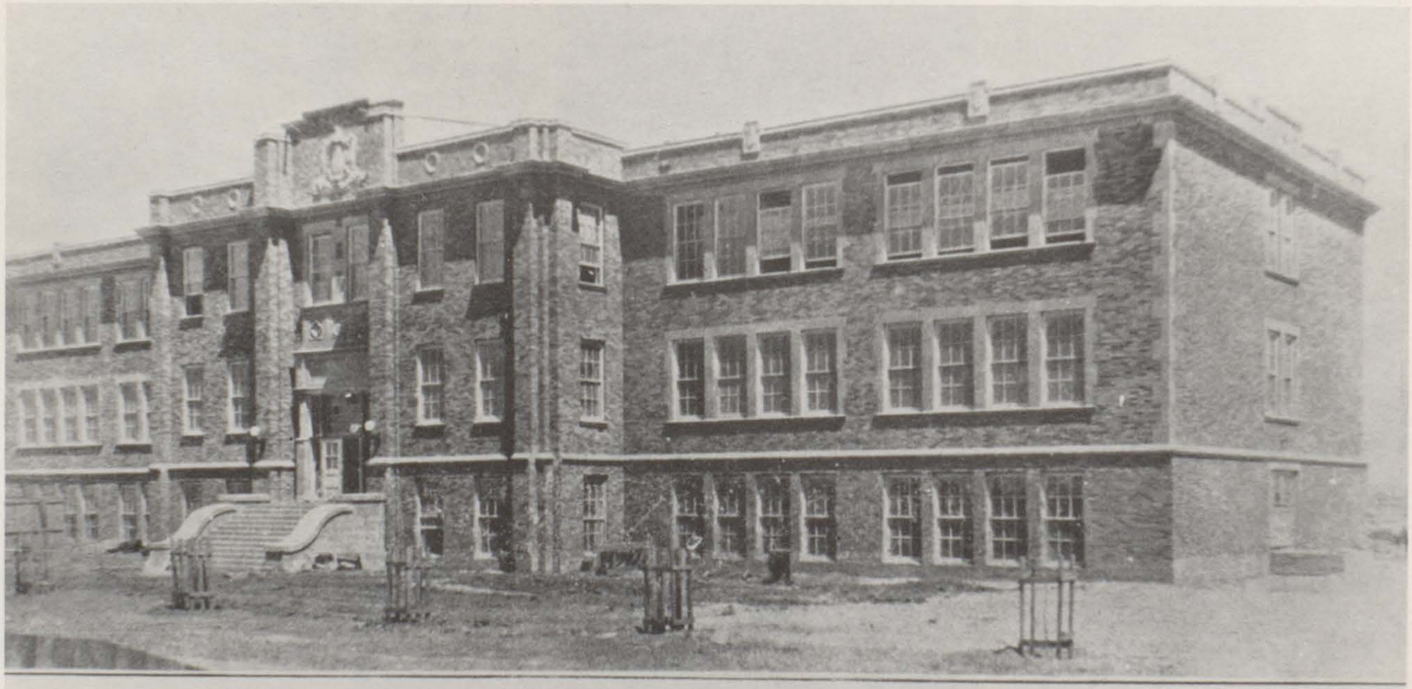

WHS 50th YEAR

Winslow's New High School

THE FIRST WHS

The Wilson building, TOP, was the original high school, built with only two floors. The third floor was added in 1913-14, MIDDLE. The top floor was removed in later years after having been condemned. The Wilson Building was razed in 1975.

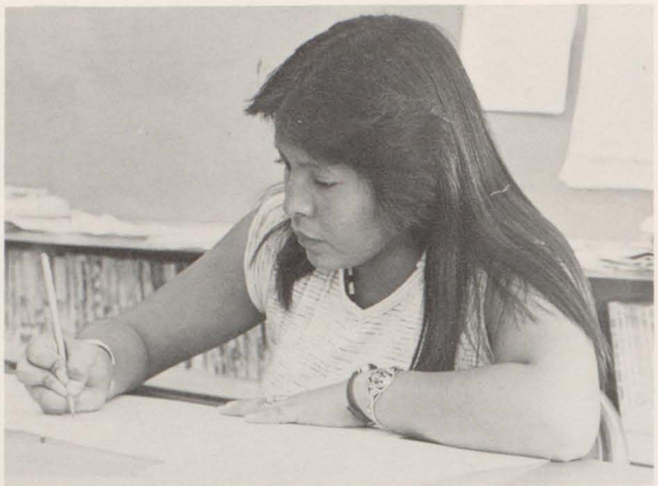

The first high school gym was constructed in 1949-50, LEFT.

ANNUAL STAFF

This year the Meteor staff consisted of eight members: BOTTOM, back row, Melanie Jones, Mrs. Roberts, advisor, Dawn Smith, Rhonda Weatherwax, and Laura Shurley; front, Nancy Clubbs, Greg Kreie, Brenda Howell, and Antoinette Saufkie. Staff on the job, CLOCKWISE, at right: Dawn checks the accounts; Laura designs a division page; Rhonda and Nancy complete a layout; Greg and Rhonda check the ads; Brenda and Melanie file sales stubs; and Antoinette completes a layout.

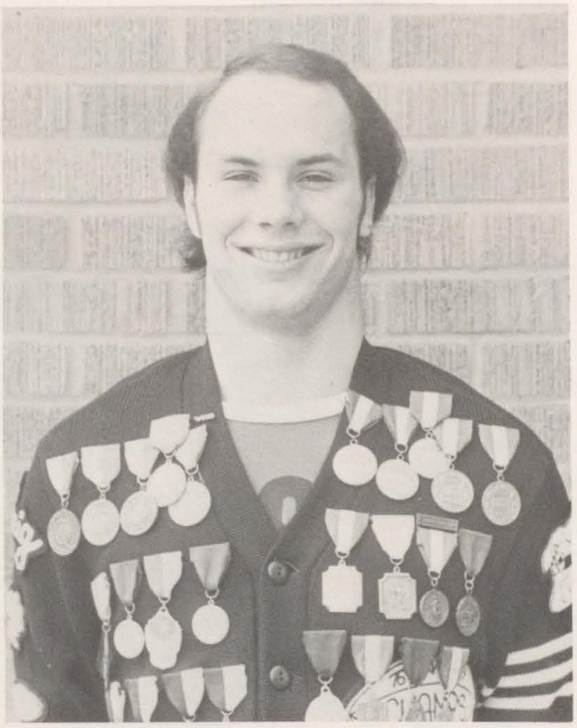

SENIORS

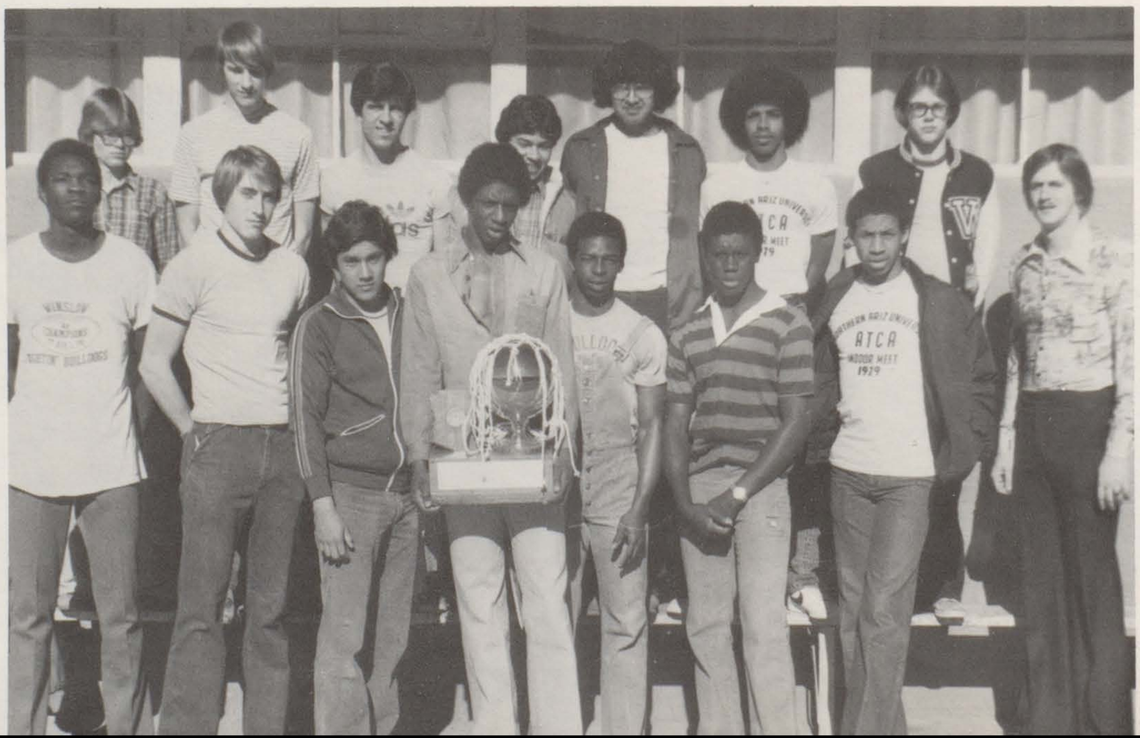

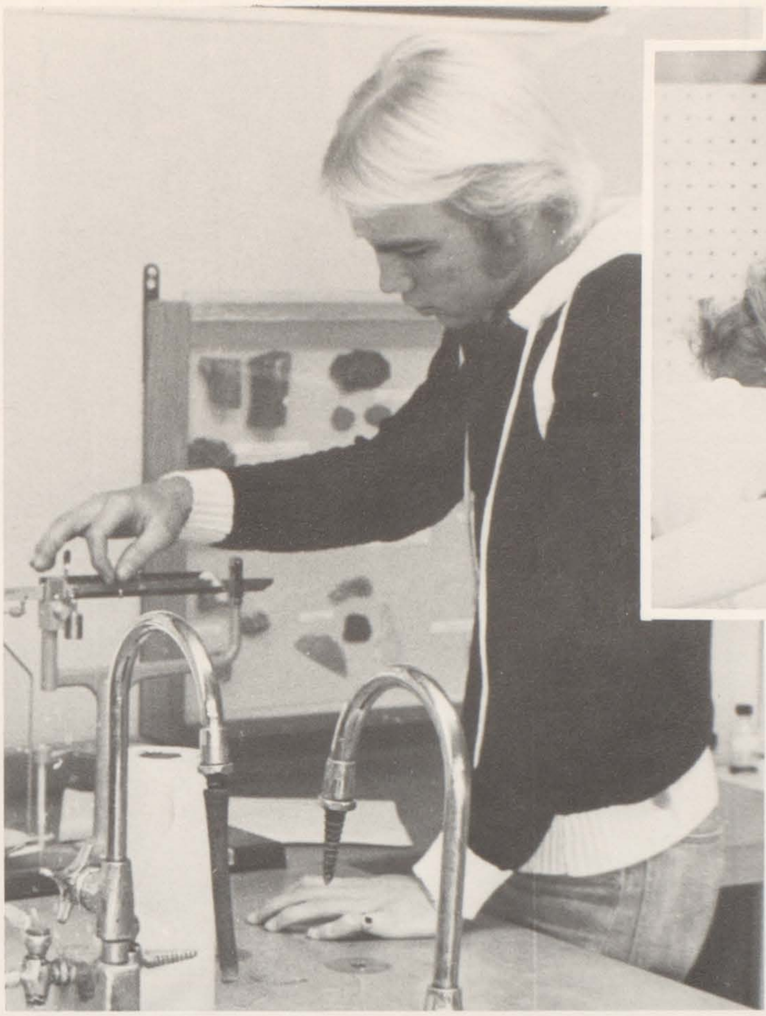

"WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS"

The Winslow Fightin' Bulldogs had good reason to develop big heads because both the girls and boys varsity basketball teams successfully captured the AA state championship this year. This is the first year the girls have taken the state title, defeating the Gilbert team 58-54 in a very close game. The boys, for the first time in 15 years, beat their opponent, Corona del Sol, with a score of 70-64 to become the state champions. The basketballteams were not our only state champions this year. Craig Freeman took the state wrestling championship in his weight class for the second consecutive year.

CLASS OFFICERS OF '79

The class of '79 started out great by taking first place in the Homecoming float contest. The class Christmas Royalty candidates were Lisa McDonald and Arthur Chavez, who came in second after running a close race with the juniors. In the Faculty-Senior basketball game, which was held in December, the seniors defeated the faculty squad with a score of 75-71. Also, by the beginning of the second semester the seniors had raised nearly $2,000 to meet the year's expenses.

SENIORITIS

Here we have a few typical seniors who have been bitten by the senioritis bug. Students seem to automatically contract the disease after four long years of high school. Fortunately, it is rarely fatal.

SENIOR-FACULTY BASKETBALL

The Losers!

The Winners!!

The Joggers!

Such grace and poise?

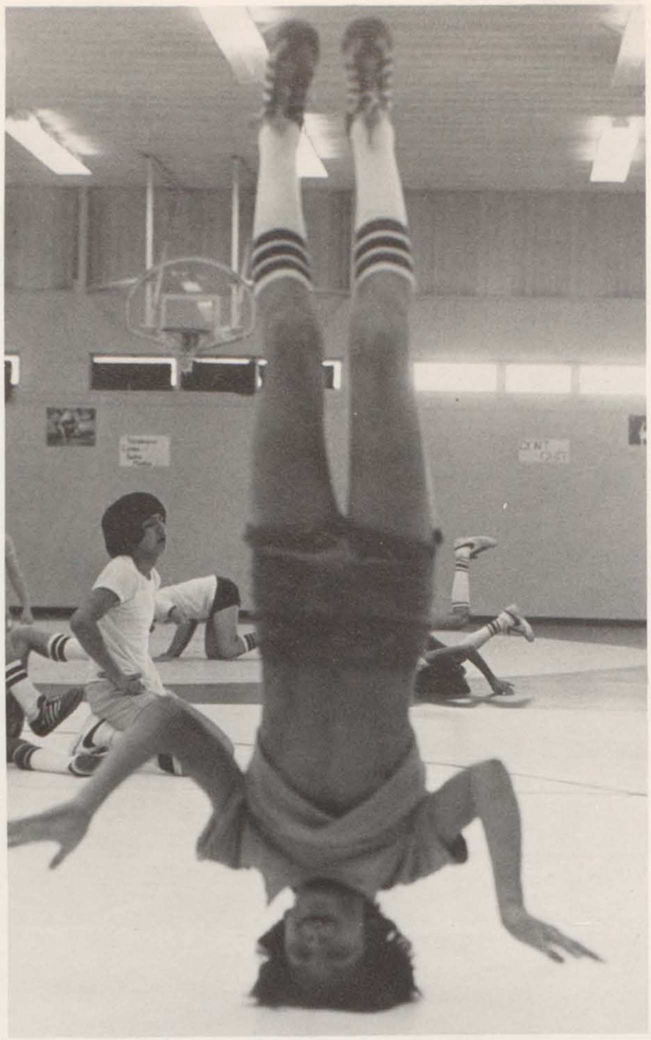

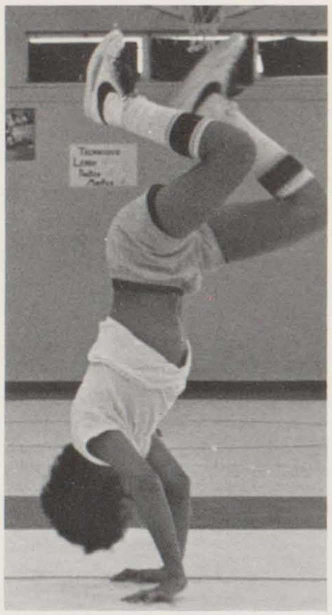

W.H.S.'s Beautiful Cheerleaders!

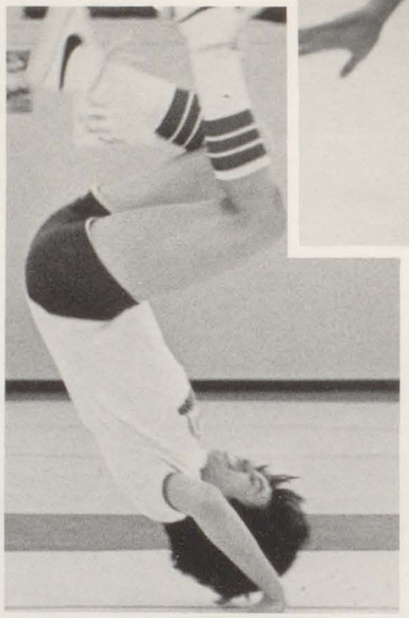

TUMBLING

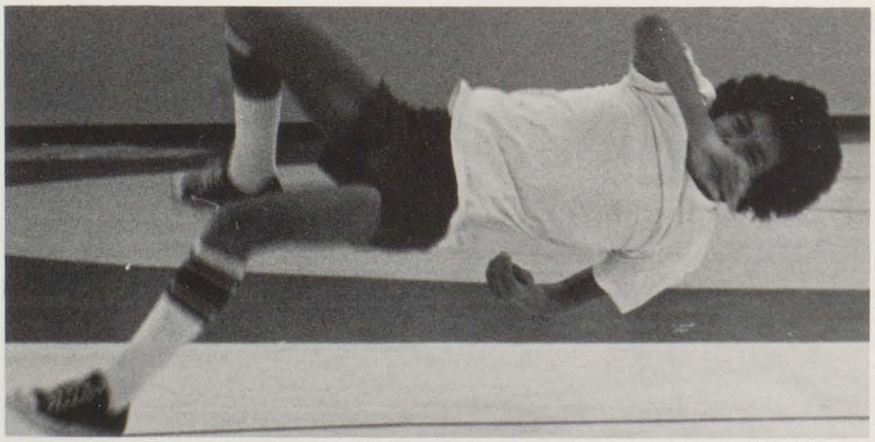

All the members of the freshman class are required to take health and physical education. Our photographer was fortunate to catch these freshman gymnasts displaying their talents.

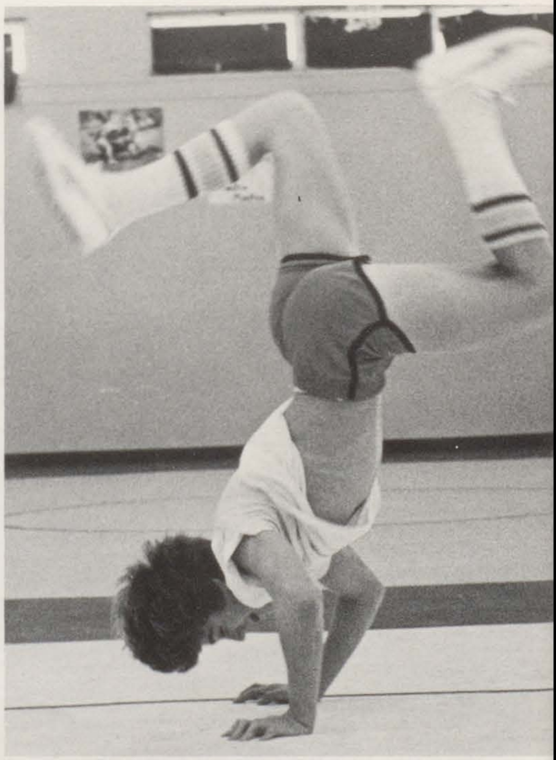

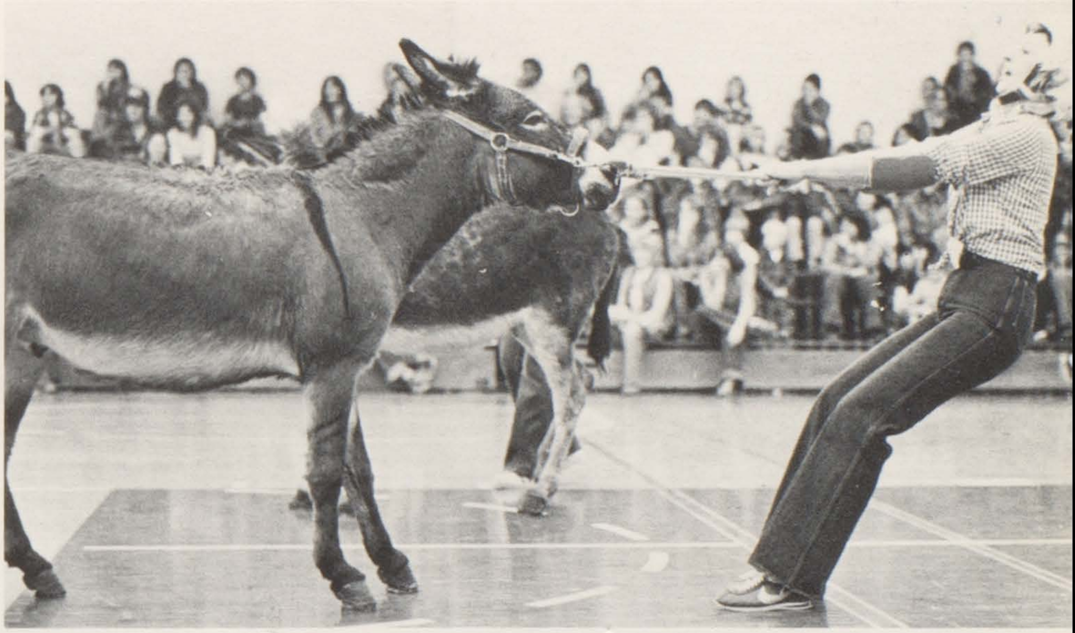

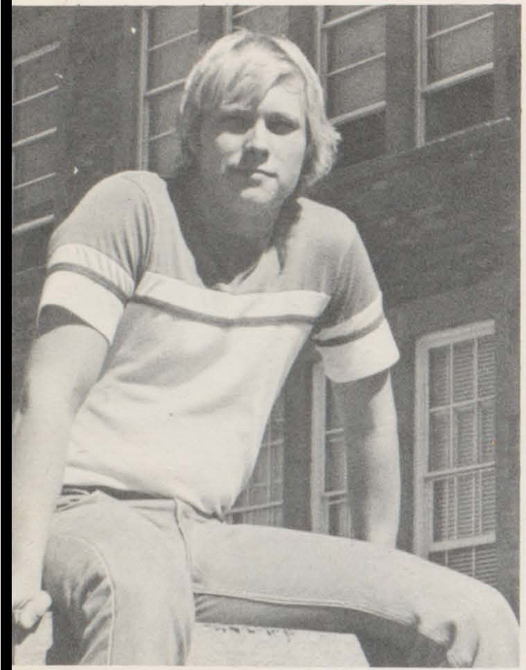

DONKEY BASKETBALL

On January 25th, the members of the Winslow High School faculty played their traditional donkey basketball game against the junior high faculty. After all the falls, bruises, bumps, pushing, tugging, cussing, and sweating, there was no doubt that the donkeys were the victors.

BOYS AND GIRLS STATE

Six Winslow High School students were chosen to attend Boys and Girls State in June of 1978. They are, CLOCKWISE from top right: Cheryl Horner and Jennifer Watts, who attended Girls State at U of A in Tucson, and Raul Guzman, Bill Fritz, David Peters, and Chris Atkinson, who attended Boys State at NAU in Flagstaff.

SOPHOMORES

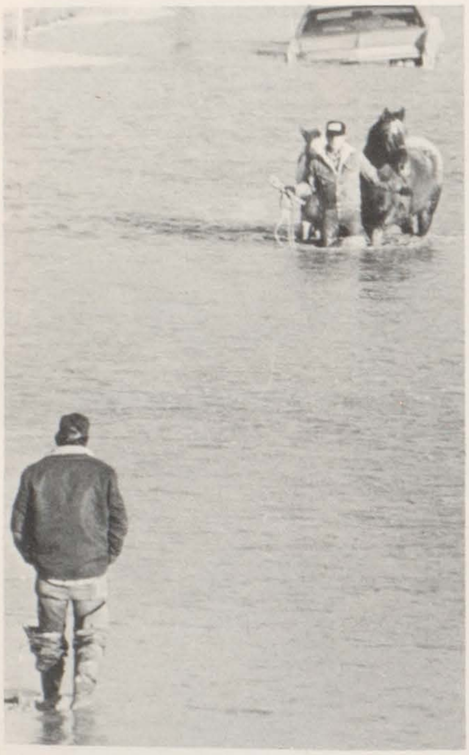

1978 FLOOD

On December 19, 1978, the Little Colorado River jumped its banks and flooded Winslow Plaza, Ames Acres, and Bushman Acres, damaging many homes and causing people to evacuate. This was the worst flood in most people's memories and Joey Gonzales, who lives in Bushman Acres on French Road, took these pictures while rescue workers were using boats and rescuing livestock.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

The class of 1981 started out rather slowly by taking last place in the Homecoming float contest. The class made a comeback by placing second in the Christmas bulletin board contest with 125 out of 150 possible points.

CHRISTMAS ROYALTY

The juniors won the Christmas Royalty contest this year with $348.90 worth of canned goods. The seniors came in second with $346.93. The freshmen and sophomores came in third and fourth with $120.93 and $109.31, respectively. Pictured ABOVE are Lisa McDonald, senior candidate; James Ahrens, Christmas King; Kim Sekakuku, Christmas Queen; and Arthur Chavez, senior candidate. RIGHT: The candidates with the cans the classes collected: Kim Sekakuku, Harold Sluga, Elks Exalted Ruler, James Ahrens, and Mrs. Sue Hysong, Student Council sponsor.

Winslow saw its first snow on December 5 and 6.

FRESHMEN

CLOCKWISE from top right are Shanon Paul, Kathy Leonard and Lisa Kenna "studying." Orlando Seaton and Willis Begay seem to think it's funny, but Scott Sekaquaptewa does not seem to think so. Bill Barris takes time out from reading his book to pose for the camera. Lori McDonald seems to have talked her way out of class to have her picture taken again. Robbie Cox emphasizes his being free at last. And finally, the freshmen during slave week take part in the chalk walk.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

The Freshman class of 1982 began the year with a great start. On their entering the Homecoming Parade they proceeded for the first time in many years to win second place with their float. They included a bulldog on their float, which no other class did. They continued to follow the tradition of wrapping and burning the W. They also articipated in money- raising projects.

RIGHT, Vice president, Rory Whipple is caught at the water fountain and BELOW, is the prize-winning freshman float.

SPEECH & DRAMA

Speech and Drama members participated in the district speech tournament at Page. They also participated in 4 tournaments away and hosted a successful speech tournament here. Members were active in the production of the play "The Unknown Soldier." Officers for 1978-79 were John Abrahamson, president; Donna Scott, vice president; Kim Secakuku, secretary-treasurer; Terri Hancock, representative; and Rhonda McAdams, historian. CLOCKWISE from top: Rhonda McAdams, Mr. Ron Harris, Greg Kreie, and Debbie Fowler discuss parts; Sandra Richey; Tommy Gilliam; Tina Kitzrow; Genie Robinson; and Cathy Williams. All these members participated in the tournament.

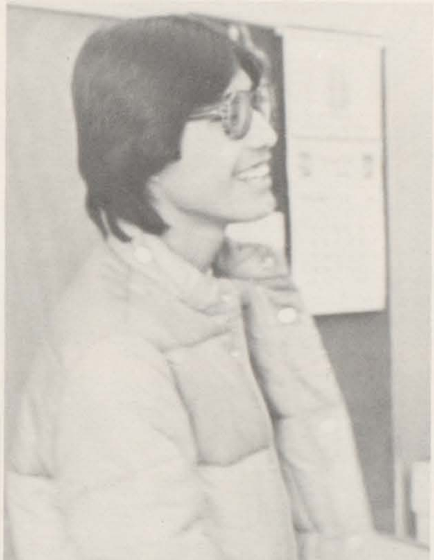

TRIBE OF MANY FEATHERS

Tribe of Many Feathers is an Indian club that is open to all students. This year members earned money by sponsoring bake sales. The club officers for the year were Tommy Bahnimptewa, president; Ron Lee, vie president; Kathy Morris, secretary; Ann Youvella, treasurer; and Miriam Stacey, representative. Indian Royalty were Carol Betoney, queen, and Ron Lee, king. Members AT LEFT sitting on stairs are, front row: Ann Youvella, Henry Parker; middle row: Mildred Begay, Judy James, Kathy Morris; back row: Seraphine Lee, Lynette Shupla, Tommy Bahnimptewa, Debbie Riley. Miss Melisse Terry is their sponsor.

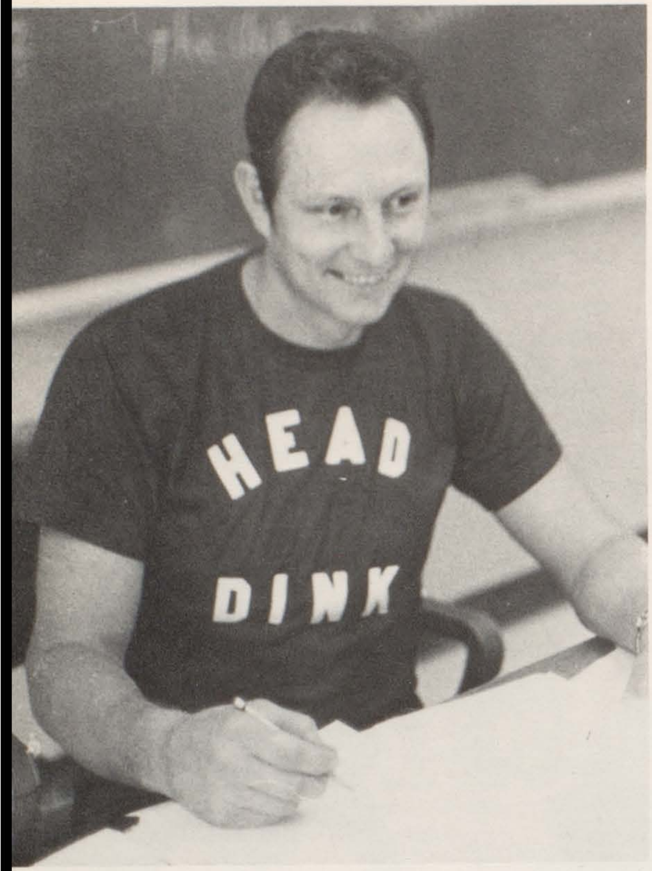

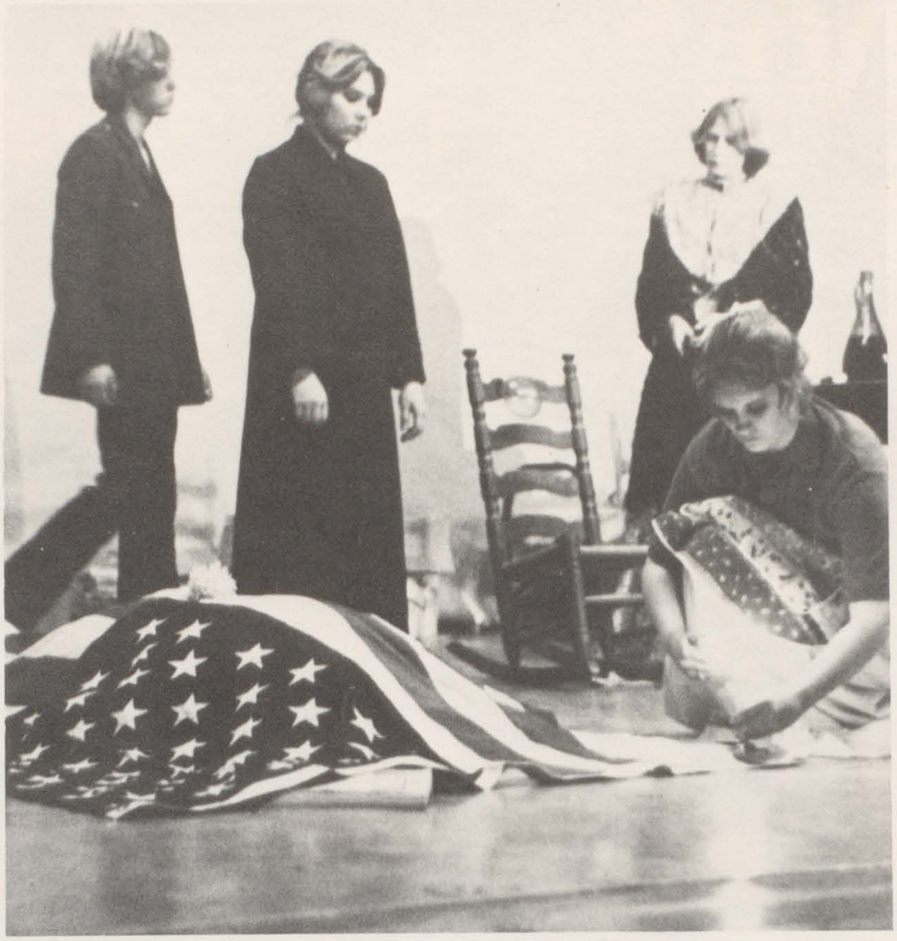

ONE ACT PLAYS

Mr. Howell told his play members not to be dinks, so they gave him the honor of being head dink. This year the drama class presented three one act plays. Top right and center right on opposite page show the cast performing "The Unknown Soldier". This play was chosen to compete in the speech tournament. This page, bottom and opposite page, top right and bottom show performance of "Moonshine Martians." Opposite page, top left and center right portrays the celebration at "Mr. Winkler's Birthday Party." The casts included: Willie Hancock, Donna Scott, Rhonda McAdams, Melanie Jones, Gloria Yazzie, Eddie LaBart, Debbie Fuhrmann, Greg Kreie, John Abrahamson, Kathy Leonard, Coye Campbell, Suzanne Coffee, Jeannie Johnson, Robert Howell, Beverly Jackson, Chris Gonzales, and Phyllis Turner.

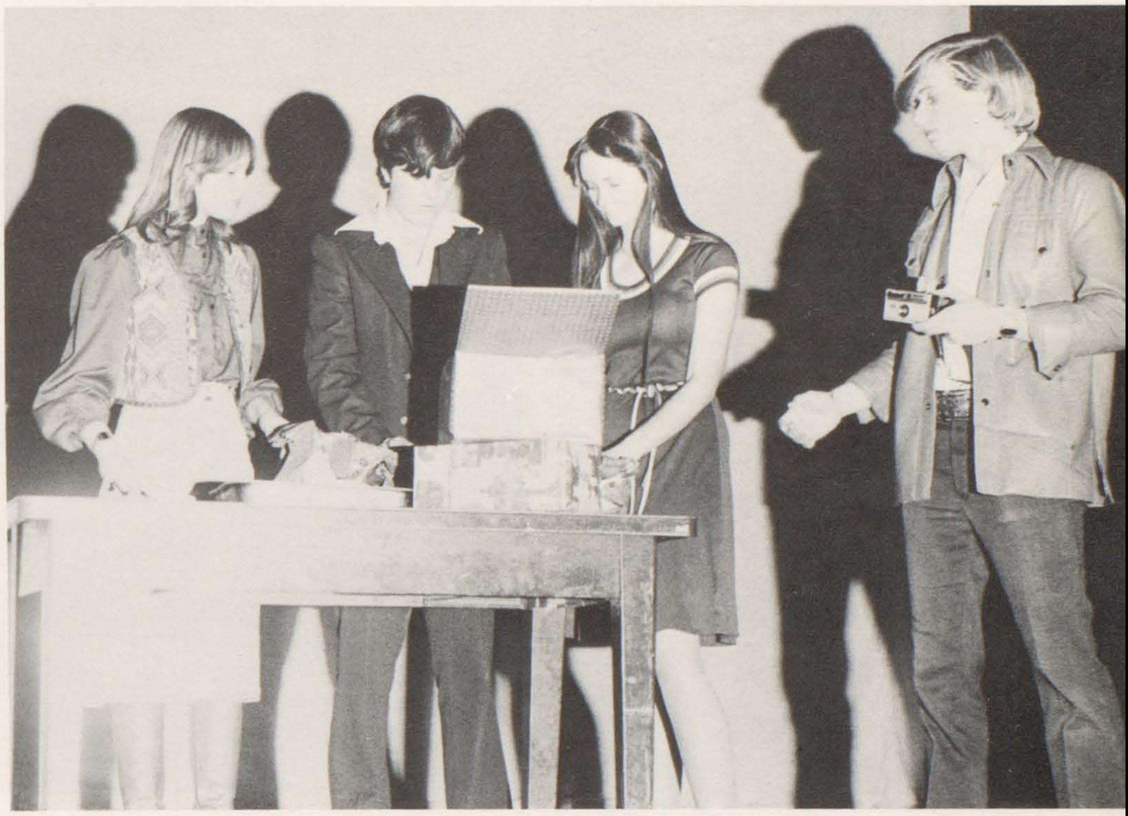

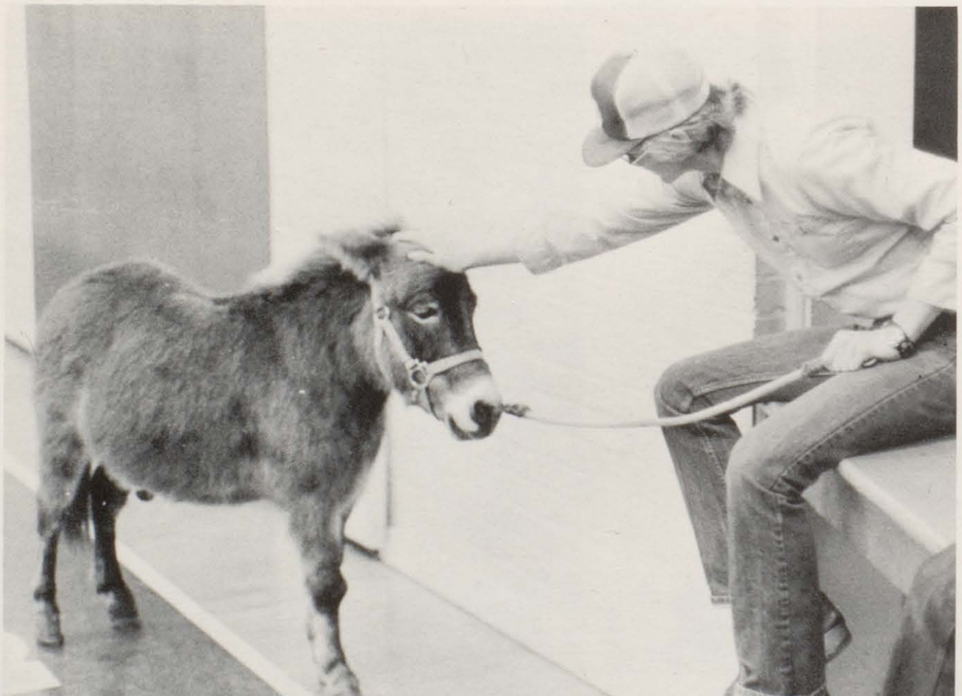

MOMENTS

KEY CLUB SWEETHEART

CANDIDATES

The Key Club broke with tradition this year by choosing a junior girl instead of a senior to be the Key Club Sweetheart. The name of the Sweetheart was announced at the Sweetheart Dance, which was held on March 2. Rita Hatch, ABOVE, was chosen as the Sweetheart. Her court consisted of CLOCKWISE, starting below: Patty Benham, Lisa Cavin, Cindy Ahmann, and Yvonne Faucher.

PHOTOGRAPHY

This year's photography class had a really challenging year because they were constantly rushed for pictures since the yearbook was put out in May.

A FINAL WORD

As editor of the 1978-79 Meteor, I would like to express my sincere appreciaton to the yearbook staff and to the photographers, whose many efforts made this book possible. I would also like to thank the students who cooperated in the compiling of this book. And I would like to extend my thanks to our adviser, Mrs. Frances Roberts, for the many hours of work and worry she has put into this publication.

I hope this yearbook will bring many happy memories in years to come. I wish all the students and faculty at Winslow High School the best of luck.

BOYS TRACK TAKES STATE AGAIN

The boys track team had a great season winning the AA north divisionals and the state title. New school records were set by Warren Wilhoite, 440 yd. dash and long jump; Willie Powell, high jump; and in the 440 yd. relay and mile relay. Capturing individual state champion titles were Warren Wilhoite, Anthony Polk and Willie Powell. The 440 relay and mile relay teams also captured titles. CLOCKWISE starting at upper right: Shawn Peterson sails over the bar; Willie Powell begins a jump; state champs are, kneeling: Jim MacLean, Dalton Owens, Anthony Polk, Mike Van, Alvin Kooyahoema; standing, Gene Hudson, Warren Wilhoite, Willie Powell, Ron Pelton, Shawn Peterson, Larry Tyler; Gene Hudson in the high jump; Warren shows his record-breaking stride; Anthony leading the pack.

GIRLS TRACK

The girls track season was highlighted by the winning of the AA north division title. Through the season the girls captured three firsts, including the Winslow Invitational, and took numerous runner-ups in dual and three-way meets. Out of 28 schools at the state meet, the girls took sixth place. Anna Van, a junior, set a new school record of 25.0 in the 220-yard dash. Freshman Paula Owens set a record of 16.3 seconds in the 110-yard hurdles. COUNTERCLOCKWISE starting at upper left. Jackie Reynolds is up and over the bar; Linda Begay pulls away from the pack as Lula Morris strives to catch her opponent; Anna Van shows good jumping form; girls who went to state were Robbie Powell, Darnell Scott, Janet Scott, Paula Owens, Jackie Reynolds, Nancy Jensen, Kim O'Haco, and Pam Moore; Anna Van crosses the finish line well in the lead; Nancy Jensen gains on her opponent.

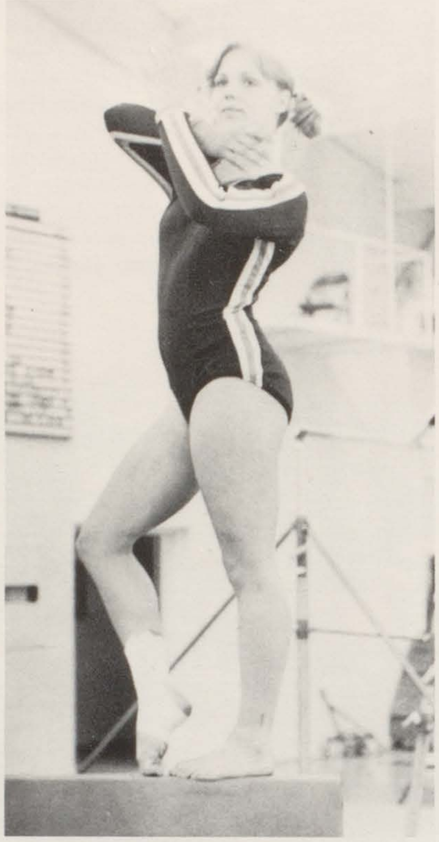

GYMNASTICS

HONORS

Many students received awards for outstanding accomplishments at the annual Honors Assembly and the Elks Youth Banquet. Among those honored are, CLOCKWISE, from right: Jim MacLean, third place winner in the Elks Youth Scholarship Contest; Valerie Pfeiffer and Chris Atkinson, runners up in the Elks Scholarship Contest; Bill Fritz, first place winner in the Elks Contest; Mrs. Jill Zeiger, yearbook dedicatee; and Barbara Clubbs, third place All Around Champion.

CLASS DAY

The Class Day program was presented on May 17. CLOCKWISE from right: Bobbie Padilla and Jennifer Watts present Mr. Fritz with his award; Marlene Brown, Jenny Campbell, and Terry Kirk exchange signatures; Tommy Whipple assists the band. Cathy Williams and Robert Greer sing the class song; Bretta Higdon and Debbie Tafoya read class prophecies; Gay Volk reads the class poem; Mr. Magallanez grins for the cameraman; and one of the class skits is performed.

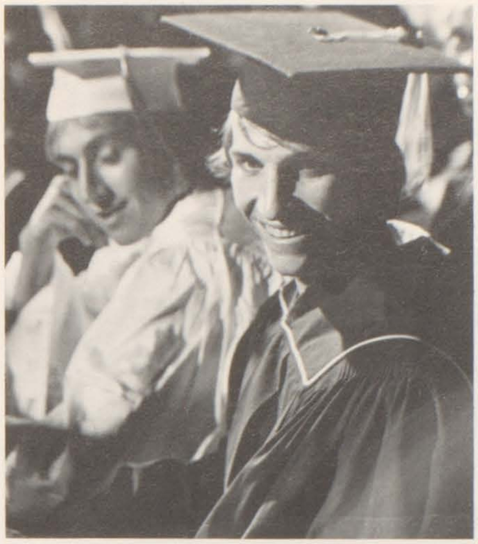

The theme for the 1979 graduation ceremony was "Where You Come From Is Not Nearly So Important As Where You Are Going." This year three people were valedictorians. Bill Fritz spoke first on "The Morning of Our Lives;" Nancy Clubbs followed with "The Noontime of Our Lives;" and James MacLean concluded with "The Evening of Our Lives." Reverend Stan Gollery presented the invocation, address, and benediction to the 186 member class.

TOO MUCH HEAVEN JUNIOR PROM

The 1979 Junior Prom was held on April 21, in the Elks Auditorium, which was decorated in a rainbow of colors. The theme for the prom was "Too Much Heaven." One major change was made in this year's prom: Instead of having a live band, the couples danced to the music of a disc jockey. Upper left: Prom King and Queen David Peters and Carol Betoney. Opposite page, upper left: the 1979 prom dedicatee, Mr. Jim Ware.
